

Technician Apprentice

General Description:

This individual will assist and be mentored by a technician performing chimney inspections, sweeps, and repairs. This job includes assisting and learning to perform masonry work, installing stainless steel liners, and installing components of a fireplace and other appliances. This work can be performed at heights and the individual must be able to climb and work from scaffolding and ladders. This work is performed both indoors and outdoors and the weather can be inclement at times. Personal protection equipment is utilized and provided to include eyes, hands, hearing, fall and respiratory protection.

Education and Training Requirements:

High School Diploma or G.E.D.

Strong desire to learn and grow

A general knowledge of hand and power tools is necessary

Certifications:

Current MD driver's license & dependable transportation

Ability and desire to obtain at least one chimney certification within one year of employment.

Certifications may include:

1. Chimney Safety Institute of America (CSIA)
2. Certified Chimney Professional (CCP)
3. National Fireplace Institute (NFI)

Experience and Skills:

Capable of wearing personal protection equipment

Able to work from heights

Is physically demanding

Lift up to 80 pounds

No experience is required

Drug free and no current DUI's

Ability to work overtime on evenings and weekends if needed

Compensation:

Industry competitive rate commensurate with experience

Benefits: After successful completion of probation

Seven paid holidays

Paid time off to include vacation and sick leave

Health insurance offered

Participation in Simple IRA